Dear Mr. Leopold:

This letter is in response to your letter of January April 21, 2004

In regards to the inquiry regarding The Peoples Energy Corporation Federal PAC exceeding the campaign limit of $2,000.00 for a committee not classified as a multi-candidate committee, we only received a contribution of $1,500.00 as stated in the report on March 15, 2004.

The Time Warner PAC called on May 24, 2004 and re-designated their contributed to the general election. They have already called the FEC to make the change.

The check received from Clifford Christian was received on March 20, 2004 and it did not have an election designated on it. It was my error to classify it for the Primary 2004 Election since the contribution was received after the primary.

I received a telephone call on March 31, 2004 from the Democratic Congressional Committee stating that they had made an in-kind contribution of $20.83 for the primary election. Since the contributions were made for the primary election, I am assuming that they were made before March 17, 2004 and I have made that correction on the report

The checks from the American Dental PAC and Illinois BankPac were received after the primary election with no elections specified, I was in error when I designated them for the 2004 Primary Election. I should have classified them as 2004 General Election. The corrections have been made.

In Schedule B, individuals for given sums of monies to pay individuals for distributing literature. The individuals distributing literature were given small stipends as small as $25.00 but never larger than $50.00.

In regards to disclosing the identification of all contributors who have given in excess of $200.00 in an election cycle, I have followed the following procedure.
